2021 FALL OFFERING

FEATURING EXTRAORDINARY WINES
FROM

GREECE

LANTIDES MOSCHOFILERO ROSÉ,
PELOPONNESE
2020 ★★★★★

This delicious aromatic grape is indigenous to Greece. This example has been given some skin contact to enhance its natural pink colour. It shows a delicate floral bouquet with notes of rose petals and lemon peels. The palate is crisp and dry with a chalky yet vibrant citrus finish. Try with lighter salads or as a patio sipper. Drink now to 2023.

NICOLUZO CACOTRIGI, CORFU
2020 ★★★★★

Cacotrigi is a rare indigenous grape found on the island of Corfu. The aroma is highly perfumed with notes of apricots, fuzzy peaches and lemon candies. The palate is crisp and dry with surprising tannin. This wine is unique and fun (just hope no one ever asks you to guess this in a blind tasting!). Try with goat cheese and dried apricots. Drink now to 2023.

AYRARAKIS KOTISFALI,
CRETE
2018 ★★★★★

Kotifali is an red grape indigenous to the island of Crete. The wine shows notes of black pepper, aniseed, black cherries and flint. The palate is full bodied with significant structure and a bitter almond finish. Pair with rosemary encrusted flank steak. Drink now to 2030.

KLIMA KLIMA ORGANIC
ASSYRTIKO, HALKIDIKI
2019 ★★★★★

100% Xinomavro. If you like Barolo or Brunello will love this! Aromas of black truffles, figs, dates, tar and leather. The palate is medium bodied yet has rich notes of cocoa, licorice and a long drying finish. Try with a rich slow cooked Osso Buco or Moussaka. Drink now to 2030.

Assyrtiko is arguably the finest white grape in Greece. The wines are long-lived and complex. Shows aromas of almonds, citrus, dried hay and a smoky complexity. The palate is medium bodied with citrus, pear and real mineral richness. Try with hard cheeses or roast poultry dishes. Drink now to 2028.

BOUTARI GRANDE
RESERVE, NAOUSSA
2016 ★★★★★

Liatiko is a grape variety indigenous to Crete. This example shows a pale ruby colour. It has aromas of strawberries, cranberries and red cherries. The palate is soft, yet possesses fine silky tannins. The flavours are berry driven and juicy, with a delicate finesse. Lovely wine. Try with a medium cheese such as Edam or Gouda. Drink now to 2025.

ARYARAKIS LIATIKO,
CRETE
2020 ★★★★★

100% Xinomavro. This wine is a medium crimson in colour. The nose shows classic aromas of dried Mediterranean herbs, tar and licorice. The palate is medium bodied with notes of leather, spice, and mineral intensity. The wine finishes with characteristic drying tannins. Pair with Parma ham and olives. Drink now to 2029.

BOUTARI NAOUSSA
2017 ★★★★★
